Abstract. This document is a template and already defines the components of your paper [title, text, heads, etc.]. For the papers written in Slovene language an English title and abstract is required. The abstract should be no more than 200 words.

We accept only electronic submissions in Microsoft Word or Adobe PDF format. Submission form can be found on SRK web page [1].

1. Introduction

Papers submitted to the Seminar on Optical Communications (SOK) should be prepared using this template (A4 format in two columns with all margins set to 2.25 cm). Papers should be four pages long, including references and short author biographies.

2. Writing Instructions

When writing, use the styles defined in this document and do not change the font size or style. This document may be used as a template for preparing your paper. Table 1 summarizes the basic styles and font sizes.

Each first paragraph should be written without indentation, while all following paragraphs should have the first line indented.

Table 1. Title of the table and a brief description of its contents.

Text Style	Font Size	Attributes
Paper title	17pt	bold
Author names	12pt	bold
Affiliation	10pt	italic
Heading	12pt	bold
Subheading	10pt	bold
Regular text	10pt
Captions & ref.	9pt

3. Equations and Figures

Equations should be written in italic type and numbered consecutively. References to equations in the text should be given in parentheses (1).

$$F_0 = 10 \log(F1 F2 F3 F4 F5) \quad (1)$$

Figures should be placed within one-column or two-column frames and labeled with a figure number and caption. References to figures must be included in the text (Figure 1). Ensure that figures are of sufficient quality for publication.

Automatic figure numbering (Insert Caption) and the use of bookmarks for references are recommended. Figure 1.

4. Writing and Submission of Paper

Instructions for writing and submitting papers can be found on the website [1]. We accept papers in PDF or Microsoft Word format. Before submission, please check the information for authors available on the website [1].

Please observe the submission deadline. Send your paper to: bostjan.batagelj@fe.uni-lj.si.
